| Attendance | All members of the group should attend all taught sessions and all pre-arranged group meetings. Reason for absence from taught sessions should be notified to the module leader prior to the session by email and communicated to other members of the group. Reasons for excused absence might include interviews, illness, or family emergency. |
| Punctuality | Students should be ready to start the sessions and group meetings promptly and be prepared to sit & work in groups as required by the module leader and team. Reasons for any lateness should be explained to the module leader and to other group members. |
| Availability | Students should be available for taught sessions of the module as timetabled and make themselves available for group meetings. All group members should disclose their non - availability for group meetings to the group i.e., paid work, extra-curricular activity, family commitments etc. |
| Meetings | Meetings should be arranged as far as possible at a time and place convenient to all. It is recommended that meetings are arranged on the same day as the module is taught to maximise likelihood of availability of all members. |
| Contact Details | Members of the group should be prepared to share contact details with other members of their group. You may also set up WhatsApp groups and/or use other means to communicate. All group members should agree and use the means of communication. |
| Communication | Communication between members of the group should be of a professional standard whatever the means of communication e.g., WhatsApp, Twitter etc. Incidences of harassment, bullying or abuse should be reported to the module leader who will take appropriate action. |
| Participation & Contribution | Students should participate fully in the work set for the group whether for assessment or otherwise. Details of how that work should be shared amongst the group should be arranged and agreed by the group itself. |
| Group Log | A log of all meetings and actions is to be maintained. |
| Individual Questionnaire and evaluation | Each group member will submit an individual evaluation of their own contribution and that of the other team members.Penalties may be applied by the module leader based on this feedback. |
